MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Security

SUBJECT   :   Reorganization of the Office of Security

1.   In accordance with your instructions to the Task Force on 8 May 1973, amendments have been made to the original proposal for reorganization of the Office of Security and are included in the attached package.

2.   The following changes were made subsequent to our discussions:

a.   A Deputy Director for Policy and Management (DD/PM) has been established at the GS-17 level.

b.   The position of Chief, Plans, Programs, and Administration Division at the GS-16 level has been placed under the cognizance of the DD/PM.

c.   The Special Security Center, the Security Records Division, and the Information Handling Group (previously known as the Computer Security Group) have been included within the DD/PM.

d.   The positions of Chief, Security Support Division, and Chief, Technical Division, have been elevated to GS-16, with their Deputies at the GS-15 level.

e.   A C. I. Specialist has been assigned to work directly for the Chief, Clearance Division, at the GS-15 level.

f.   The Chief, Operational Support Branch, has been elevated to GS-15, and the Alien Affairs Officer has been designated Deputy Chief (Alien Affairs), Operational Support Branch, at the GS-14 level.
